Art Unit: 2876

1. The amendment filed August 7, 2003 has been entered as paper number 6. By this response claims 1 and 13 have been amended.

2. The terminal disclaimer filed August 7, 2003 has been considered and entered as paper number 7. However, this terminal disclaimer is not considered to be proper for the following reasons:

It does not include a recitation that any patent granted shall be enforceable only for and during such period that said patent is commonly owned with the application(s) or patent(s) which formed the basis for the double patenting rejection. See 37 CFR 1.321(c)(3).

and

The assignee has not established its ownership interest in the application, in order to support the terminal disclaimer. There is no submission in the record establishing the ownership interest by either (a) providing documentary evidence of a chain of title from the original inventor(s) to the assignee, or (b) specifying (by reel and frame number) where such documentary evidence is recorded in the Office (37 CFR 3.73(b)).

Thus, the previously applied double patenting rejection is repeated below.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686

Art Unit: 2876

F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7,16-18 of U.S. Patent No. 5,543,610 in view of Tremmel et al, Moellering and well known prior art. Patent '610 claims recite an electro-optical scanner for scanning an indicia (bar code), with a light source and a detection means, and a processing means for generating a signal, and a transmission means which transmits in RF. Patent '610 does not recite the acknowledgment signal or indicator as currently claimed. However, as seen in the above 35 USC 103 rejection, Tremmel, Moellering and well known prior art disclose all the remaining currently claimed limitations. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include the teachings of Tremmel, Moellering and well known prior art in the claimed invention of the '610 Patent. This would enable the indicia scanner of the '610 Patent to effectively communicate to the operator that a successful scan of the target indicia was achieved so that the operator could proceed to the next operation.

5. Claims 1-20 would be allowable over the prior art of record if a timely filed terminal disclaimer were to be filed.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: As clearly amended into the independent claims and specifically argued by applicant in the response of paper number 6, the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest, in conjunction with all the other limitations of the independent claims, an audible indicator located physically remote from the scanner and system manager.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
